

Sunora Foods Appoints New Vice President Business Development

June 26, 2019 – CALGARY, ALBERTA. Sunora Foods Inc. (the “Corporation”) (TSX-V: SNF) announces the appointment of Mr. Gregory Morhun to the position of Vice President of Business Development effective immediately. Mr. Morhun will be focused on the development of new markets for Sunora’s line of food oil products.

Mr. Gregory Morhun began working in the edible oils business over forty years ago after graduating from the University of Manitoba with a Bachelor of Commerce (Honors) Degree. Since that time, he has held positions with Maple Leaf Foods, Prairie Margarine, CanAmera Foods and most recently with Bunge.

Mr. Morhun began trading lard and retail margarine in Winnipeg. He moved to Toronto in 1982 to market food service and institutional oils and fats. In 1985 he moved to Edmonton, where he was instrumental in the creation of Prairie Margarine, which was involved in the production and sale of private label, retail margarine and salad oils. In 1996, his role with CanAmera Foods was expanded to include the export sales of all packaged oil, shortening, and margarine. CanAmera Foods was acquired by Bunge, and Mr. Morhun was promoted to Vice President - Retail and Export Sales in 2002. In this role he traveled throughout much of the world for Bunge.

As a friend, associate and occasional competitor for many years, Steve Bank is pleased to have Mr. Gregory Morhun working with Sunora Foods and believes that he will make a very worthwhile contribution to Sunora Foods.
